PCE HEALTH AND SAFETY

GENERAL POLICY STATEMENT

The Health and Safety At Work Etc. Act 1974

PCE LTD will comply with its legal duties in order to provide a safe and healthy working environment for its employees and others affected by its activities. It will take positive action to ensure that other contractors' employees, occupiers of premises, and members of the public do not have their health and safety adversely affected by the work operations of the company. The only acceptable standard of health and safety, and for welfare facilities, will be full and proper compliance with the legislation. Where it is possible and practical to do so, the company will exceed the minimum requirements of the legislation.

PCE LTD will seek to ensure that every company it works with or subcontracts to aspires to a similar high standard of health and safety.

With the importance that this company places on the engagement and wellbeing of its employees, the company will strive to:

- consult, on health and safety matters, with employees and others who may work under our control to ensure that the arrangements for health and safety management are practical to implement.
- as far as is reasonably practical, fully and effectively control the health and safety risks arising from its work activities, in cooperation with employees, other contractors, clients and any other relevant parties.
- investigate lapses in health and/or safety performance and implement remedial actions to prevent, so far as is reasonably practical, their recurrence.
- provide and ensure that all plant and equipment owned, used or hired by the company is appropriate, safe to use and properly maintained, inspected and tested.
- ensure that all equipment, materials and substances used by the company are appropriate for their intended use and used, handled and stored safely.
- ensure that all employees are provided with adequate supervisory training, information and instruction to competently carry out their work activities.
- ensure that all working places are maintained in a safe and healthy condition.
- provide adequate resources, including sufficient finance, and access to competent health and safety advice, to achieve the aims of this policy.
- review and revise this policy statement annually and also where necessary due to changes in the company activities, accidents and incidents investigations or legislation changes.
